Authored by Neyda Umana, Vice President for Academic Governance of the Associated Students Incorporated, California States University, Los Angeles and David Zitser, President of the Associated Students, Incorporated, California State University, Los Angeles

WHEREAS, the Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) is the single recognized voice for over 27,000 students at California State University, Los Angeles; and

WHEREAS, the California State Student Association (CSSA) is the single recognized voice for the 474,000+ students of the California State University (CSU) system; and

WHEREAS, the Chancellor's Office passed Coded Memorandum AA-2009-021 on local responsibility for student participation; and

WHEREAS, the coded memorandum encourages best practices to "ensure that associated student body organizations are full participants in campus policy development";

WHEREAS, the CSU Board of Trustees, passed a resolution on Student Participation in Policy Development² that states "each campus is responsible for ensuring that associated student body organizations are involved in campus policy development as full participants";

WHEREAS, the CSU Board of Trustees resolution also states that campus "presidents will provide these officially recognized associated student body organizations an opportunity to offer opinions and make recommendations about campus policy and procedures that have or will have an effect upon students";

WHEREAS, CSSA passed a Letter on Shared Responsibility of Campus Governance in May of 2017 which acknowledges and suggests principles that student leaders and university presidents may adhere to as means to guide their professional interactions;

WHEREAS, this letter defines Shared Responsibility of Campus Governance as "the expectation of consistent collaboration among students, faculty, staff, and administration in making decisions that impact the campus and its community";

WHEREAS, students are key stakeholders on any university campus, and as such are subject to direct and indirect impacts made by university policies, procedures, and decisions;

WHEREAS, the ASI Vice President of Academic Governance oversees the recruitment and coordination of student committee members from the committees and subcommittees of the Academic Senate, College, and University-Wide branches;

WHEREAS, the ASI Academic Senators actively coordinate and support student committee members serving within the committees and subcommittees of the Academic Senate;

WHEREAS, the ASI College Representatives actively coordinate and support student committee members serving within the committees and subcommittees of the respective six Colleges;

RESOLVED, ASI supports the Letter from the California State Student Association on Shared Responsibility of Campus Governance;

RESOLVED, ASI supports the California State Student Association Shared Governance Resolution;

RESOLVED, That ASI Cal State LA reaffirms the definition of Shared Governance to be one in which incorporates the participation of students within campus Shared Governance bodies, including but not limited to committees/sub-committees, Ad-Hoc Committees/Taskforce, and working groups as defined in ASI Policy 023;

RESOLVED, That ASI Cal State LA will continue to seek to expand and secure opportunities for student participation in the Shared Governance of Cal State LA, and shall work collaboratively with administrators, faculty, and the campus community to do so;
