Q55 - What can the VRC do to make the space more inclusive?

What additional things can the VRC do to make the community more inclusive?

make tv controls easily accessible without having to ask for them.

Other vets that goes into the study area needs to realize its a study area, and keep their mging voice down.

No suggestions at this time

It's good the way it is.

It can have more events that allow the students to get to know each other better along with getting to know the staff.

I think if the VRC would like to attract more people to go there, they need a bigger and better space.

It would be nice to relocate the VRC somewhere else. It feels tucked away and hidden.

tell tell the veterans they should not curse ask the time

Have a color printer for the students like all other VRCs in this region. Have a bigger space in order to have a quiet area to study without noise.

Keep on doing the variety of workshops

I think sending out emails about the VCR are helpful.

need more free classes for job relatives

Have it perform more like a library and less like a party room.

Idk

Maybe a slightly larger quiet study area

Consider the midterm and final weeks which students need a space to study. Having the VRC open later during those weeks could be beneficial to student veterans and their success on campus.

Nothing they are doing great

Stop being so anti-LGBTQ.

Be more willing to reach out to dependents

Free food

More space

Continue what it has done in the past making sure that Veterans are a priority.

Sell snacks again

Quiet space be quiet Vs gossip space (students that frequently hang out there). Makes it uncomfortable for those of us that do not really make use of that space and seldomly stop by for quiet space with minimal distractions.

Bigger study area

I think it is a good place to network and socialize and be a part of something, however as an introvert, I have not used other features that VRC offers.A

Is all the code switching really necessary? If so, hold a Spanish as a Second Language (SSL) workshop.

N/A

The VRC does an outstanding effort to reach out to Veteran students. Unfortunately, I do not take full advantage of all the services or the Center itself. That is something I plan to work on during this last year here.

I do not visit the VRC often, based on past experiences at previous college I found the VRC very uncomfortable. Strong use of profanity language and silliness. I like a fun environment where people can be relax and joyful. My experience was that the relaxed supervision interfered with interactions with the veteran student workers not taking and properly keeping documents secure and safe. I have not experienced this type of behavior at the VRC CSULA office. Thank you for professionalism

It is good if there was a copy machine that would be great .

Enforce silence in the computer room, ask people on their phone or having a conversation to step outside, close the door and/or remind people to close the door. Do NOT let people use chairs for their pack (leave them available for people to sit). Don't let one person spread their stuff all over a table, discouraging others from sitting there. Do NOT leave it up to the students, but actually look in the computer room and enforce these guidelines!

Our program starts at 0700 and we only come in on Fridays. It would be nice if the VRC could be open earlier so I could get a coffee, collect my schoolwork and gather my thoughts for the day.

No complaints, as it feels very inclusive. A slightly larger "quiet room" to fit more students for study could be useful if possible.

I would say that the VRC is very helpful and a welcoming place for vets between classes. I would only suggest that staff members stress no cursing in the center. The staff is not cursing but some of the vets that I see there frequently curse a lot in the center when having conversations that make the vets trying to relax disturbing.

Supplementing a new printing station and more accessible computers stations.

We need a bigger place since there are a lot of veterans come in and out everyday => It is hard to stay focus while we are trying to study here. Also, we need more computer.

Locker room talk is part of the military culture however sometimes there are some veterans that get out of hand and start to personally offend others. Intervention from staff, simply saying keep it down or having mental health resource information to help that veteran to learn how to express him or herself in a more socially appropriate manner might help. Cussing is fine as long as it's not degrading females or another veteran.

I know it may be difficult but if the VRC offered snacks like the USO does that would be nice. Not full course meals or anything just snacks or something to munch on.

Install a sink for our plates, reach out to local vendors to see if they'd donate snacks that are close to expiring. Contact other vendors for drinks at the VRC....such as red bull, Pepsi, coke

Stop talking out loud in the lunch area while people are studying in the computer lab. People start laughing and talking very loud.

Q82 - What changes would you like to see in regards to class selection?

What changes would you like to see in regards to class selection?

more times the class is available

No Suggestions

Better time slots

NA

Having more classes open that are in the morning rather than in the afternoon/evening

My major has many night and Saturday classes offered but I would rather have Mon-Thurs morning classes.

More sections

Not sure yet

none

More options for what time and day to take a class would be helpful

More times during the day instead of only one class for the semester in the evening. Having a morning afternoon and evening would be great.

Offer more classes

stay the same

need more classes selection

need more classes selection

More available classes for upper division students

Available in all semesters

Provide more electives. The options for the major are few in number.

I've noticed over the years not as many upper division major classes have not been offered.

None

A button in the menu that puts the classes in order of the time the take place

N/a

More ethnic studies classes.

Notification of class cancellation ASAP and that sequence courses at different locations do not end and the other begin at the same time.

Change the number of students needed to not cancel a class. There seems to be a misunderstanding between the departments/colleges, the register office, and the financial aid office that causes classes to be cancelled. This impedes students from successfully meeting their individual criteria to complete their degree/certificates.

None

More classes available so people can choose to do only classes m/w or only classes t/th

Some classes are rarely offered

None

More availability

The priority registration makes it possible for me to get into courses so I do not have any recommendations for changes

more times for classes

More sections in classes that are too full.

I'm not a regular student. I don't know.

none

More sections open on high demand classes (i.e. CHEM 3500, KIN4650)

More class/ Professor allow to add.

availability in both fall and spring.

More classes upper division courses offered in Winter and summer

More graduate class offerings

I know it is limited due to low enrollment in music, but I would like to see some classes offered at a variety of times and both semesters rather than Fall or Spring only and only offered at a certain time.

none

Have a variety of classes available for night and day schedules

More classes taught for those in high demand

None. I'll be done next semester. Let everyone else suffer. Obviously the school don't care.

Allow walk-ins for vets

no changes

be specific on what major goes what location

N/A

need more job relatives internships

More engaging and accommodating

I think the department as well as the school in general should cater to non-traditional transfer students more. My money is worth the same as other students, yet I'm treated like I'm child (attendance), I'm placed in courses that I have seen most of the material for, etc. Also, why do I have professors assigning me to go watch lectures online every week created by someone else? I'm paying the school to teach me, not audacity. Supplementing is fine when it's not used for entire course lectures. I pay the school, not that company. Have your professors lecture, some of them are being lazy.

None

More counselors to provide advising

None

A newsletter or something that makes the department feel more like a community

N/a

Only changes I would like to see is better funding for my department.

Pay attention to the overlap in time of sequence courses that are not being held at the same location and notifications of change of staff to students already enrolled in the course

More classes

Broader range of ethnicities in staff.

N/A

We need more full time/tenure bound faculty members. I do not want to see my department, class, or major disappear.

None

Be more friendly to students

The dept head doesn't seem to do anything, lets faculty volunteer for tasks, but doesn't ensure tasks are being completed. They do NOT communicate with each other or with the students. HORRIBLE planning! They have ONE person doing everything (Florita) even though its NOT her job, but they have staff all over the dept. Unable to delegate, communicate, or provide guidance. Fire the dept head and hire better leadership.

N/a

Be more organized with the program. Have instructors on the same page.

More counselors for same day appointments

more welcoming

None

Check in with students

N/a

I don't have a major.
