1. What previous experience have you had in the area in which you are applying for?

As the chair for the epc last year I've accumulated the skills necessary to become a better leader. I am currently a Sunrise fellow working as an environmental activist, advocating for progresive policies and resolutions like the gnd - and traveling the country recruiting people from the public in a variety of cities like kansas city, louisville, and philadelphia. I've also had the privilege to work in the bay area hub in San Francisco as a policy consultant working with other policy makers to create an inclusive sustainable culture within my movement.

I've also had in field experience talking to voters, collecting voter data, canvassing, and advocating for social policies all over Los Angeles working with multiple political campaigns with the senator of vermont's bernie sanders, boyle heights' Wendy Carrillo, Representative Kevin DeLeon, and Green Party candidate Kenneth Mejia

2. State briefly why are you are applying and/or are interested in this position

As a political science student entering my last year in undergrad, I envision a career to work as a political consultant, campaign manager, advisor, or actually run for office one day. It fills my heart advocating for social justice. I am now planning to lobby against fossil fuel executives and Mitch McConel with my fellowship to advocate for social issues. With the skills I've built over the summer and my passion, I believe I can organize Cal State LA students to do our small part to fight the existential threat of climate change.

3. What do you feel are some of the major problems facing the students of Cal State LA?

I believe students need to understand how ASI can be a platform to express their voices within their student government. In my time with ASI I've seen first hand how students can get involved with their representatives to express their needs in regards to food insecurity, housing, classes, mental health, and many other issues. In my experience outside of ASI, I've come to learn how many students of color express their needs to fight for social issues like environmental racism, gentrification, impaction, etc.

4. List activities and/or organizations that you have been involved with (on or off campus)

ASI Environmental Policy Commissioner
Bernie 2016
Wendy Carrillo for Congress 2017
Kevin DeLeon for Senate 2018
Kenneth Mejia for Congress 2018
Political Science Club
Sunrise Fellow
