
Student Life & Student Conduct

The office provides opportunities to learn more about the resources students can utilize such as the Golden Eagle Handbook that includes university policies in order to enhance their knowledge and learning experience.

The student conduct office provides information about student rights and responsibilities and help them use that information to resolve issues and managing conflict such as grade appeals, student grievance procedure and more.

To learn more go to: <http://www.calstatela.edu/student-services/golden-eagle-handbook> and <https://www.calstatela.edu/student-conduct>
