ARTICLE V

VACANCIES, RECALL, AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

- Section 1. Vacancies. If any elected official, during the term of office, ceases to be a student at Cal State LA or qualify for office, that office shall be deemed vacant; any office not filled during the general election shall be deemed vacant.
- Clause 1. In the event a director ceases to be a director due to death, resignation, disqualification, removal, leave of absence, or is determined to be ineligible by the Registrar of the University, such a vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired terms by a majority vote of the total remaining directors.

- Clause 2. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the ASI President, the Vice President for Administration shall become President, only if the incumbent Vice President for Administration has been elected by the student body during a general or special election.
- Clause 3. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the ASI President, and should the office of the Vice President for Administration be unable to serve as President, the Vice President for Finance shall become President, only if the incumbent Vice President for Finance has been elected by the student body during a general or special election. The Vice President for Finance is not permitted under Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for CFO to act concurrently as President. See Corporations Code Section 5213(a).
- Clause 4. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the ASI President, and should the office of Vice President for Administration be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Administration be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for Finance be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Finance be unable to serve as President, the Vice President for Academic Governance shall become President, only if the incumbent Vice President for Academic Governance has been elected by the student body during a general or special election.
- Clause 5. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the ASI President, and should the office of the Vice President for Administration be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Administration be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for Finance be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Finance be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for Academic Governance be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Academic Governance be unable to serve as President, the Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement shall become President, only if the incumbent Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement has been elected by the student body during a general or special election.
- Clause 6. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the ASI President, and should the office of the Vice President for Administration be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Administration be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for Finance be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Finance be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for Academic Governance be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for Academic Governance be unable to serve as President, and should the office of the Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement be vacated or should the incumbent Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement be unable to serve as President, the Secretary/Treasurer shall become President, only if the incumbent Secretary/Treasurer has been elected by the student body during a general or special election.
- Clause 7. Should the offices of the ASI President, the Vice President for Administration, and the Vice President for Finance, Vice President for Academic Governance, Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement, or Secretary/Treasurer be vacated simultaneously, a special election for those offices shall be held.
- Clause 8. Should the offices of the Vice President for Administration, the Vice President for Finance, the Vice President for Academic Governance, Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement, or the Secretary/Treasurer be vacated, the Board of Directors shall appoint a replacement. Vice Presidents appointed in this manner will not be eligible for appointment to the position of President by the Board of Directors.
- Section 2. Recall/Removal. Any elected or appointed Director may be subject to recall by action of the Board of Directors as prescribed by the Code of Procedures, or by petition containing signatures and campus identification numbers (CIN) of ten (10) percent of Associated Students, Inc. regular members.

- Clause 1. In the case of a college representative, any elected or appointed Director may be subject to recall by action of the Board of Directors as prescribed by the Code of Procedures, or by petition containing signatures and campus identification numbers (CIN) of ten (10) percent of Associated Students, Inc. regular members in the respective college. Only members from that college will be able remove/recall their college representative.
  - Clause 2. All persons wishing to circulate petitions for recall must register them with the Executive Director or designee, at which time all copies of the petition will be dated.
  - Clause 3. The Vice President for Student Life or designee ensures that the recall petition is returned to the Associated Students, Inc. within twenty (20) working days. The enrollment status of all students whose signature and student identification number appears on the petition shall be verified by the University Registrar within ten (10) working days of receipt of the petition.
  - Clause 4. Should such a petition be verified, a special election shall be called by the Associated Students, Inc. President within fifteen (15) working days of the verification date.
  - Clause 5. A majority of votes cast for recall shall remove a director from office, providing that the total number of votes cast in the recall election equal or exceed the number cast for that director when elected, plus at least one-fifth (1/5) of the total number of votes cast for unsuccessful candidates for the election.
  - Clause 6. In the event that a director was appointed to the Board of Directors under Article V, Section 1, Clause 1, or has succeeded to office under Article V, Section 1, Clauses 2, 3, and 5; the total number of votes cast in the recall election must equal or exceed the total number of votes cast for the director's predecessor, plus at least one-fifth (1/5) of the total number of votes cast for unsuccessful candidates for that office.
- Section 3. Removal of Directors by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may initiate action to remove any director through the removal procedures prescribed by the most recently revised edition of the Associated Students, Inc. Code of Procedures.
- Clause 1. Removal of a director for any reason will not invalidate any prior vote or actions on the part of that director.

- Clause 3. Power. The Judicial Review Committee, after appropriate legal consultation, shall have the power to declare corporation actions contrary to the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, or any Code. Such declarations shall then be referred to the Board of Directors for immediate remedial action pursuant to Article VI, Section 1, Clause 1.
- Clause 4. Procedures. The Judicial Review Committee shall:
- A. Establish its own Code of Procedures. This code shall be approved by the Associated Students Board of Directors.
  - B. Submit its decisions in writing to the Associated Students Board of Directors for appropriate action and inclusion in the official minutes.

Clause 5. Term of Office. The term of office for members of the Judicial Review Committee shall coincide with the term of office for the Associated Students, Inc. Board of Directors.

Section 12. Environmental Policy Committee. The Environmental Policy Committee shall assist the Board of Directors in formulating and promoting environmentally sustainable policies for ASI and the University at large, as well as educating the campus community on various environmental topics.

Clause 1. All actions of the Environmental Policy Committee must be reported to the Board of Directors. Once reported, the Board of Directors may reconsider the actions of the Environmental Policy Committee.

Clause 2. The actions of the Environmental Policy Committee shall be governed by these bylaws, as well as its most recent Code of Procedure.

Section 13. Elections Committee: The Elections Committee shall be responsible for conducting all ASI General and Special elections in a manner consistent with these bylaws, as well as all applicable Campus, State, and Federal regulations; as well as taking, with the consent of the University President or their designee any action necessary and proper for the fair conduct of elections.

Clause 1. All actions of the Elections Committee must be reported to the Board of Directors. Once reported, the Board of Directors may reconsider the actions of the Elections Committee.

Clause 2. The actions of the Elections Committee shall be governed by these bylaws, as well as its most recent Code of Procedure.

ARTICLE X

ELECTIONS

Section 1. Annual General Election. There shall be an annual general election by the members of this corporation for the purpose of electing the officers of this corporation. Said election shall be conducted on the campus of California State University, Los Angeles. The election shall be held on a date or dates as may be determined by the General Election Code of Procedures and approved by the Board of Directors.

Clause 1. Notice of the time of such election shall be given at least three (3) weeks in advance and must be placed in various public places on the campus of Cal State LA and published in the following ways:
A. Campus wide e-mails
B. The ASI website and/or the University Times

Section 2. Special Elections, Referendum, and Initiative

Clause 1. Initiative. The ASI shall have the power to initiate policy, rules, or regulations at a Board of Directors meeting by means of a written petition. All persons wishing to circulate petitions must register them with the Executive Director or designee, at which time all copies of the petition will be dated. Petitions must be signed by at least three percent (3%) of the current members of the ASI with permanent file numbers, verified by the University Registrar as mentioned in Article V, Section 2, Clause 2. Upon presentation of the petition to the Board of Directors, that body shall act on said petition within a period of fifteen (15) school days. If the Board of Directors fails to take action requested in the petition, the petitioners may request a referendum, and the Board of Directors shall make provision for such an election as specified in Article XII, Section 2, Clause 2.

Clause 2. Referendum. Any policy, rules, or regulations adopted by the Board of Directors shall be subject to a referendum vote of the ASI except emergency measures without permanent effects; procedural rules of the Board of Directors; any initiative on which the Board of Directors fails to take action in Clause 1 of this Section; or any matter on which the Board of Directors desires a vote of the general student body. A request for such vote made either by written petition signed by at least three percent (3%) of the members of the Associated Students with permanent CIN file numbers, verified by the University Registrar; or two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors, shall necessitate a special election within thirty (30) school days after said petition has been filed, or after such action by the Board of Directors.

- A. To pass a referendum the majority of the votes cast by the regular members of ASI shall be sufficient to uphold the referendum in an election.
- Clause 3. Notice of the time and place of the special election shall be given at least seven (7) days in advance and shall contain a general statement of the purposes and matters to be considered.

Notice of the special election must be placed in various public places on the campus of CSULA and published in the following ways:

1. Campus wide e-mails
  2. The ASI website and/or the University Times
- Clause 4. Special elections for other purposes may be called by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors or by petition of five percent (5%) of the whole student body, and shall be conducted in a way consistent with other paragraphs of this section.

ARTICLE XI INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER AGENTS

- Section 1. Right of Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the corporation shall indemnify its Directors, Officers, employees, and other persons described in Section 5238 (a) of the California Corporations Code, including persons formerly occupying any such position, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding," as that term is used in that Section, and including an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. "Expenses," as used in this Bylaw, shall have the same meaning as in Section 5238 (a) of the California Corporations Code.
- Section 2. Approval of Indemnity. On written request to the Board by any person seeking indemnification under Section 5238 (b) or Section 5238 (c) of the California Corporations Code, the Board shall promptly determine under Section 5238 (e) of the California Corporations Code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5238 (b) or Section 5238 (c) has been met and, if so, the Board shall authorize indemnification.
- Section 3. Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under these Bylaws in defending any proceeding covered by those Sections shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for those expenses.
- Section 4. Insurance. The corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its Officers, Directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any Officer, Director, employee, or agent in such capacity or arising out of the Officer's Director's, employee's or agent's status as such.

ARTICLE XII MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

- Section 1. Conflict of Regulations. In the event that a provision of code, or other regulation of a commission, Committee, Council, or other organization of this corporation be in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of this corporation, these Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws shall prevail.
- Section 2. Signature on Petitions. To be valid, the signatures on a petition must be accompanied by the student's permanent file CIN number and each page of the petition must contain a statement of a purpose of that petition.

- Section 3. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of this corporation shall be a period of twelve (12) months between the first of July and the thirtieth of June of the succeeding year.
- Section 4. No Corporate Members. The Corporation shall have no members as that term is defined in Section 5056 of the California Corporations Code, or in any successor statute thereto. Any Corporate action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members of the Corporation shall require only approval of the Board of Directors.
- Section 5. Amendments & Revisions. The Bylaws of this corporation may be amended or revised by a majority of the votes cast by the regular membership of this corporation in general or special election or by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board of Directors.
- Clause 1. All amendments and revisions to the Bylaws approved by the Board of Directors shall go into effect immediately and must be reported to the regular membership of ASI within 15 business days.
- Clause 2. Amendments and revisions approved by the Board of Directors may be rescinded by the regular membership of this corporation at the following general or special election. This process shall be as follows:
- A. Any amendment or revision may be subject to rescission by petition containing signatures and campus identification numbers (CIN) of one (1) percent of ASI regular members.
- i. All persons wishing to circulate petitions for recall must register them with the Executive Director or designee, at which time all copies of the petition will be dated.
- B. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee ensures that the rescission petition is returned to the Associated Students, Inc. within twenty (20) working days. The enrollment status of all students whose signature and student identification number appears on the petition shall be verified by the University Registrar within ten (10) working days of receipt of the petition.
- C. An amendment or revision shall be rescinded by a majority of the votes cast by the regular membership.
- Clause 3. An amendment may be proposed by a regular member to the Board of Directors in writing:
- A. By three percent (3%) of the regular membership. Signatures and CIN numbers shall be verified by the University Registrar; or
- B. By a majority vote of the Executive Committee to the Board of Directors
- Clause 4. A copy shall be published in the University Times at least seven (7) school days prior to the day of the special election.
- A. Such copy may be accompanied by a proponent and opponent position, neither of which shall exceed two hundred fifty (250) words.
- Clause 5. The Board of Directors shall call a special amendment election in not less than fifteen (15) or more than thirty (30) school days following the presentation of the proposed amendment to the Board of Directors.
- Section 6. The Board of Directors shall be responsible for making any necessary corrections to modify the Bylaws to conform with the most current federal or state laws, Chancellor directives and University written policies. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is necessary to make such changes.
- Section 7. The University President or designee shall serve as non-voting board advisor to all Associated Students, Inc. commissions, committees, and councils.
- Section 8. Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations, the Education Code of the State of California, and the Articles of Incorporation of the Associated Students, Inc. at Cal State LA supersede these Bylaws.
- Section 9. The Associated Students, Inc. shall be subject to an annual audit by a firm of certified public accountants as provided in Section 89900(a) of the California Education Code.
