What previous experience have you had in the area in which you are applying for?

I am currently part of the orientation leader team at Cal State, LA. As an orientation leader, I have acquired many skills, such as leadership, communication, and advocacy. Holding this position has allowed me to listen actively to students' concerns and ideas on how to better our university experience. Also, I have been part of the student government while in high school. During my senior year in 2017, I was elected part of the Governing School council and Hiring Committee at Esteban Torres High School. As part of the school council, I worked closely with staff members, teachers, parents, and other classmates to bring change to our school. As part of these committees, I was able to advocate for change and participate. Moreover, as an orientation leader, I have had the opportunity to sharpen my leadership skills by communicating, adapting to a changing environment, and closely working with students, staff, and alumni.

State briefly why are you are applying and/or are interested in this position

I have the eagerness to be part of the change at Cal State, LA. As a first-generation college student, I understand the many challenges students at this university experience. My four years as a student in this institution have made me realize that there is still a lot to change, and I do not want to graduate without doing my best to find ways to better serve students. The diverse Cal State, LA campus allows students to witness the many challenges experienced by students from a variety of backgrounds. It is not so difficult to realize that no matter where we come from, as a community, we all experience similar challenges. I am applying to this student government position to provide solutions and resources that support students in navigating those challenges.

What do you feel are some of the major problems facing the students of Cal State LA?

I feel that some of the major problems Cal State, LA students face are lack of participation and awareness. One student recently asked me, "what is one event all Cal State LA students look forward to?" and I am still thinking about how to answer that question accurately. I think Cal State LA students do participate in events, but there are not many events that can bring most of the students together. I believe that to create a better sense of unity at Cal State LA, it is necessary to find ways to bring everyone together. Secondly, the lack of awareness is also a problem affecting our Cal State LA community. As an orientation leader, I have learned about different career paths, ways to get involved on campus, and resources available to all students. The problem is that not many students know about these great resources and opportunities. Some students, including myself, do not learn this information until it is too late to take advantage of it. It is crucial to find a way to expose students to the different resources and career paths Cal State LA has to offer.
