I was the Vice President of Government Affairs for my undergraduate institution. I represented the student body to the Arizona Board of Regents. I also sat on multiple diversity and inclusion boards, was on the diversity and strategic planning committee for my university while simultaneously holding the Executive Director position of multiple social justice organizations.

State briefly why are you are applying and/or are interested in this position

I applying for the position of Diversity and Inclusion Officer because I wanted to get connected here in my new community at CSULA. As a graduate student, my knowledge of the needs of students has grown to include not only undergraduate students but also graduate students. In a time of history we are currently in, it is important to be inclusive in the resources the university supplies, but also the events/education that ASI provides.

What do you feel are some of the major problems facing the students of Cal State LA?

I think some major problems that students at Cal State LA are facing focuses primarily on access to resources and creating/maintaining inclusive spaces. Whether that means extending information about foodbanks to organizations so that the word of food availability extends outside of ASI social networks or making the application to Cal State LA gender pronoun inclusive with drop down menu options --- I look forward to making a strategic plan on how to best make CSULA a safe and diversified space for students. I look forward to partnering with other organizations to provide events for students.

List activities and/or organizations that you have been involved with (on or off campus)

I am currently sitting on the Graduate Subcommittee. I am in the process of connecting with Project Rebound through my department. I have worked at variety of LA non-profits which include A Placed Called Home, Vista Del Mar, Lull Special Education School, RAAIN, and a number of non-profits in the Arizona community. I have experience working with domestic violence shelters, women shelters, anti-black combat organizations, and a variety of empowerment non-profits.
