I am interested in this position as I think I can effectively organize and market whatever necessary through new and updated methods both online and traditionally, and am capable of performing outreach to the student population.

What do you feel are some of the major problems facing the students of Cal State LA?

I believe accessibility and accommodations are without a doubt the biggest problems facing the students. 30,000 people attend which means hundreds of students have disabilities that can't access certain places, either because of poor design or faulty systems like the elevators.

I briefly worked at the University Paper as a marketing intern helping Albert Ramirez create media packages and working as a telemarketer to contact local businesses.
