Navratri is an Indian festival that's all about the music, dancing, and celebrating. People gather in decorated places to sing devotional songs called "aartis" to honor Goddess Durga. After that, the real fun begins with "Garba" and "Dandiya" dances.

In Garba, everyone forms a big circle and dances gracefully, usually in traditional attire. It's like a beautiful, swirling dance where you move around the circle.

Both Garba and Dandiya are filled with joy and lots of laughter. People of all ages participate, making it a very and nostalgic celebration of music and culture during the Navratri festival.
