- 2023-2024 Budget – The committee will review and take action to approve the 2023-2024 Budget.

Dena: The funds that are collected in the 2022-2023 year, creates the 2023-2024 budget. There was a 1,178 declining enrollment. There was a decrease in revenue of $42,000. Dena explains the need for more campaigns advertising the lockers in order to increase revenue, as well as the sales of movie tickets. In personnel, there is an increase in the first line item of staff salaries and paid time off, the minimum wage increase, and the addition of a program coordinator. There is a decrease to staff development. In staff travel, there is an increase.

John: Asks for a further explanation of NASPA.

Dena: Explains what NASPA provides for students.

Yahir: Asks for a further explanation of tuition reimbursement.

Dena: Explains what this entails as well as informing the committee that ASI will be reviewing all the policies during the summer. Also explains the breakdown of corporate costs, sensitive equipment, the first phase of the office reupholstery, operating expenses, etc. For the auditing contractual services, this will be their next final year with ASI due to their 3% increase. There will be many items we will revisit due to trends, like the number of clubs on campus. We also have the student textbook reimbursement and service awards. For promotions, blue books, and scantrons as well as marketing and advertisement, we want there to be transparent of the test supplies and swag we offer.

Dena: The reserve policy was just passed and requires ASI to maintain a minimum of 20%. Once the audit is complete, we will be able to bring our reserves back for the policy if we should fall short.
