Also, the new game room will open on the 1st floor of the U-SU.

III. Informational Items

A. Training – Brief Overview of Rober Rules of Order language

Barnaby went over Robert's Rules and shared the language and formalities with the board – agenda posted 72 hours in advance, meetings are open to the public, public comment section is required by law

B. SharePoint, Transition Folders, Resources

C. ASI Email Access

Barnaby: Mentioned both informational B & C – once you have access to your ASI email you will have access to SharePoint and all the resources within it. Also, shared the importance of checking your ASI email daily – you are all the board of our corporation without you, ASI doesn't function.

D. Summer GIA Payment

Barnaby: Shared all student leaders have scholarships called Grant-In-Aid (GIA) that is ran through Financial Aid. The scholarship starts now and goes to May 31, 2027. During the summer attendance at the trainings, board meetings, Canvas assignments will count towards that payment, and GIA checks are issued monthly.

The committee discussed personal financial aid examples and shared the importance of going to Financial Aid to talk about how the ASI GIA plays a role in your financial aid.

IV. Action Items

A. Appointment of Student Leaders

Jesus: Shared he wants to appoint Enrique as Engagement Commissioner. Enrique is dedicated to the role and discussed some ideas he has – rewards for students using their CIN, rallies with the cheer team to get spirit going on campus.

Enrique: Shared he is excited to be appointed as Engagement Commissioner and he is a former cheerleader, so he is excited to be in the role and bring spirit to the campus.

Cinnamon: Asked Enrique what the role does and why it is important to him.

Enrique: Shared the role is community engagement and wants to focus on engaging the whole student body and supporting everyone. Shared he has the passion and capabilities to do it since he wanted to come here 17 years ago and now, he has the opportunity to do it.

B. Student Fee Advisory Committee Appointments

Ashley: Shared an overview of the Student Fee Advisory Committee – it is a university-wide committee where the committee speaks about student fees, and this year is very important for ASI because is working on a referendum for a fee increase. Last year, the ASI President and two other ASI members sat on the committee and this year we are appointing two new members. First Erick Anzu, he was VP for Finance last year and sat on the committee, so he knows the history of the committee and everything that is currently happening. Second, Emily Webb the U-SU Board Chair, it is very important to have diversity in the committee to show the committee that it is not only ASI, but the U-SU is going through a similar process as well.

Erick: Shared some background information about the committee and what last year's student members noticed – there wasn't the transparency that they is supposed to be (there's supposed to be a year-end report where it says how the funds were distributed but there's no document). All mandatory fees' students pay for (category 2 & category 3) go through the Student Fee Advisory Committee.
Megan: Shared the other members of the committee are Claudio Lindow, CFO and Jessica DeShazo, Chair of the Academic Senate and the committee needs to be active because you all should be involved in reviewing all the mandatory student fees you all pay as students. The committee is supposed to provide oversight for how those funds are being spent and if there are any adjustments to them. Gave credit to last year's ASI board for pushing the administration to get the committee active again after not being for many years.
