DAVID Zitser

A.S.I. PRESIDENT

"Ignite Potential & Empower Student Voices"

That's the why of the Associated Students, Incorporated. Our vision is the basis for the services we offer and an explanation for the actions we take. When it comes to advocating for student voices, such as publicly protesting the tuition increases or empowering students by creating voter registration, education, and mobilization opportunities, we're here to serve the students. In an effort to make a difference, we encourage our campus constituents to be engaged in our communities and are ready to support student clubs and orgs with supplemental funding for their events. Our vision is the reason for our organization, the Associated Students, Incorporated (A.S.I.).

In fact, A.S.I. could be thought of as a tree. The roots of the tree are the students. Thanks to a portion of your student fees, A.S.I. has the $1.5 million dollar budget necessary to function. And since A.S.I. is completely run by the students, those students are responsible for allocating that budget to satisfy the needs of the university student community. This allows for a budget that is constantly changing to fit the mold of what best serves students.

The trunk of the A.S.I. tree is our vision statement. It's the foundation of everything we do and any service that A.S.I. creates or supports will be developed with that in mind. It's the "why" of A.S.I. The branches that stem off the tree would be the "how" and the flowers that blossom from those branches are the "what" we do.

The flowers are the services that attract people to A.S.I. Key initiatives such as the National Voter Registration Day, Life After College, and the Alternative Break Summer Service Learning Project are the flowers that let students know we are advocating and representing them across campus. To have these flowers blossom, we need to have the proper branches to support them. That's where our dedicated team of Executives, College Representatives, Academic Senators, Commissioners, Justices, Volunteers (Screaming Eagles Street Team), and Student/Professional Staff come in. Our team is the "how" that allows for our "what" to happen.

I would like to thank you for investing in this organization and supporting our vision, "Ignite Potential and Empower Student Voices." Remember, you too are a part of the A.S.I. family. Soar high Golden Eagles and have a great year.
