ZITSER

ASI PRESIDENT

Hello and welcome back! Associated Students, Incorporated (ASI) is a student-led organization created to ensure that the student voice is strong and unified within the shared governance of the campus. With such an important task, the elected/appointed ASI representatives have a responsibility to actively address student problems and to put forward student concerns to key campus stakeholders. For those reasons, it is imperative for ASI to make certain that students who may not be as involved, due to family, work, classes, etc., can still be informed about campus matters and have their voices expressed through ASI representation. And, for those wishing to represent their own and other students' views on key issues, it is ASI's responsibility to provide the resources and opportunities to do so.

This calendar serves as a first step to being informed on what initiatives ASI is involved with. Social events like the 2018 Basketball Homecoming Celebration and the 6th Annual "Bleed Gold" Dodgeball Tournament offer students a nice opportunity to have fun and cut loose, while other programs like the Meet the CSU Student Trustees and #StigmaFree events offer the opportunity for students to talk about important issues affecting them directly. In turn, workshops such as the A&L Portfolio Review Sessions and the CCOE CPR Certification Training reflect professional development opportunities that students have been asking for.

I want to encourage you, no matter what type of student you may be, to take advantage of involvement opportunities on campus and to speak with your elected/appointed ASI representatives about anything that might interest you. Each student has a unique voice based upon their own individual experiences, so help ASI serve you better by visiting our office, talking with us, and participating in any of our student planned events. And remember, look for the letters: ASI.
