Social Change Model: Education + Reflection = Social Change

Social Change Model

Why do students get involved in Social Change?

Having a personal connection to the social issue or problem being addressed

Enjoying a connection with others that emerges from working together on social problems

Having a sense of the interconnectedness of community issues

Recognizing that helping others ultimately helps oneself

Experiencing a deep satisfaction from being involved in making a difference for something that truly matters.

Social Change Model

Leadership rests on the following assumptions

Leadership is socially responsible, it impacts change on behalf of others.

Leadership is collaborative.

Leadership is a process, not a position.

Leadership is inclusive and accessible to all people.

Leadership is values-based.

Community engagement is a powerful vehicle for leadership.
