SPRING 2020

Jacquelyn Acosta

ASI PRESIDENT

Golden Eagles, welcome back to another semester here at Cal State LA! I am excited to serve as your new ASI President for the remainder of the 2019-2020 academic year. As we continue to LEAD, ADVOCATE, and ENGAGE this semester, ASI will take a new approach in its advocacy efforts to ensure we advocate with intention and purpose. We are aligning our agenda with our student body's interests and priorities. Our campus has been at the forefront of student activism throughout the CSU system. We will continue to lead as we combat issues such as food and housing insecurity, accessibility to counselors, college affordability, course accessibility, and financial literacy. Although we are known to be a commuter campus, we encourage you to get involved with our rich and diverse campus community, whether that be through clubs and organizations, student activist groups, athletics, or campus governance. Lastly, ASI looks forward to engaging with our students in various spaces for more face to face interaction to better serve our students' needs to its best ability. Best of luck to you all this semester! Shout out to the Class of 2020! Let's get this bread! 🍞👊
